PROBATE OF WILL

ESTATE OF CURTIS C. FOLLENSBY.

STATE OF VERMONT, District of Caledonia ss.

The Honorable Probate Court for the District of Caledonia, in and for the County of St. Johnsbury, in said District, do hereby certify that the will of Curtis C. Follensby, late of St. Johnsbury, in said District, deceased, is as follows:

At a Probate Court held at St. Johnsbury within and for said District on the 15th day of October A. D. 1914, an instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of Curtis C. Follensby, late of St. Johnsbury, in said District, deceased, was presented to the Court aforesaid for probate.

And it is ordered by a full Court that the said will be admitted to probate, and that the same be given full effect, and that the same be recorded in the records of said District, and that the same be published in the Caledonian, a newspaper circulating in said District, for three weeks successively, beginning on the 15th day of October, A. D. 1914, and ending on the 15th day of November, A. D. 1914, and that the same be read to the Court at the time and place aforesaid, and that the probate of said will be given under my hand at St. Johnsbury in said District, this 15th day of October, A. D. 1914.

WALTER P. SMITH, Judge.

VERMONT NEWS

At the annual meeting of the State Sunday School Association at Barre last week officers were elected as follows: President, H. A. Slayton of Morrisville; vice-president, Rev. William Shaw of Montpelier; secretary, Rev. W. W. Smith of Colchester; treasurer, William H. Wood of Burlington; member of international committee, Redfield Proctor of Proctor; department superintendents, (elementary) Miss Marion Stickney of Barre, (secondary) Rev. J. Wallace Chesbro of Bellows Falls, (adult) Rev. R. F. Lowe of St. Johnsbury, (home) Mrs. A. B. Wright of White River Junction, (teacher training) Rev. E. M. Fuller of Richmond, (missions) Miss A. E. Brigham of Bennington, (purity) Rev. J. W. Barnett of Barre.

Rev. J. T. Baxendale, a member of the Vermont Methodist conference since 1883, died at Montpelier, Oct. 22. He was born in England 70 years ago and had been a minister for 44 years. Among his pastorates in Vermont were Cabot and Peacham. He leaves a wife and one son.

At the annual meeting of the Vermont Library Association at Proctor last week the following officers were elected: President, George D. Smith of Burlington; vice-president, Fanny Fletcher of Proctorville; secretary and treasurer, Elizabeth C. Hills of Lyndonville. Mrs. Walter P. Smith of St. Johnsbury and Arthur F. Stone of Springfield were among the speakers.

William Farrar Weeks, Episcopal bishop coadjutor of Vermont, died Friday at his home in Rutland. He had suffered a long time from anemia and last summer underwent an operation for an obscure stomach trouble but only an exploratory operation was performed. He was born in St. Albans 55 years ago and was a graduate of Williams college. He had held pastorates at Enosburg, Brandon and Shelburne, and was consecrated coadjutor on January 29, 1913. He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters.

Alfred K. Honsinger of Swanton Center lost his life at Maguam Bay Thursday when a boat capsized. His son in a motor boat was towing the boat in which he was riding with Mr. Roberts who escaped by swimming to the power boat. Mr. Honsinger was 80 years old and had lived in Swanton all his life.

It is probable that Dr. Simon Flexner or some of his co-workers in the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research in New York will visit Vermont in the near future to obtain data on the epidemic of poliomyelitis. In his letter to the state board of health Doctor Flexner said that one of the principal things he was desirous of learning was whether poliomyelitis micro-organisms might be found among those who have recovered from the disease or among persons who had been in attendance on acute cases. He asked if access to the necessary persons could be obtained and where. It is not thought that there will be any trouble finding the people to be examined, as there are many people about the state who would be glad of the opportunity to be examined by one from the Rockefeller Institute and his visit is therefore practically assured.

Lots of Good Chances

to buy, sell or trade real estate. No end of this sort of thing, but these few extra good propositions have come in during the past two or three days: Party wants to trade a roughly first class little farm in Danville, near village, for small residence and tenant property with little loan in St. Johnsbury.—Fine offering for blacksmith in Caledonia county village, shop, tools, and stock good business established, but owner must get out because of ill health.—An offering extra good trade for a poor man in good farm in Cabot. Near main road to Danville, 143 acres, good land and good livable buildings. Lots of timber and wood, this $1,100 and but $500 down. This trade can't be equaled in all this section.—Good 107 acre farm near West Burke. Good buildings, well and water. Large sugar orchard, modern barn and will exchange all this for much smaller farm near village with good school privileges. All these especially and dozens of other good trades. Come in and get particulars and talk it over.
